fine art, but a very useful one. It is an art attained by few indeed. How seldom do we meet with a man who speaks only when he ought to speak, and says only what he ought to say. From the very beginning of the world kent her tongue, instead of calling Brother Adam to her side, we might have a different world. Holy Writ enjoins silence, it commands or to make a door and a bar for our mouths. It says, "If a man bridles not his tongue, his and by keeping silent we rarely offend our brother. Silence then should indeed be cultivated by all men, but more especially by Masons. And this holds true not only as resilence about your lodge work, especially about your charities. It is not essential that the world should know you gave a brother a sum of money, or helped him in some way. You have only done your Masonic duty, and the knowledge of that should be sufficient reward for you. Masonry especially enjoins slience in all things, and the true Mason will remember one of the first lessons he receives in the first degree. Cultivate the art of slience at all times.

was conferred, with R. W. James B. Gillie in the historical lecture, and it was Past Master's night. All these attractions brought out a very large gathall these attractions brought out a very large gata-ering. The rooms were handsomely decorated, the "white rose" predominating. R. W. William Scott introduced the D. D., and W. Evans, the Master, greeted and welcomed him in a very able and felic-itous address. In reply, the D. D. said: "This outpouring of the brethren is only what I expected from York Lodge, for I knew that I was coming

THE GRAND HIGH PRIEST AT ORIENT. Last Friday evening this prosperous chapter re-ceived the official visit of the Grand High Priest, Most Excellent George E. W. Stivers. Accompany-ing him were the following members of his staff: John W. Palmer, J. Harris Balston, William F. Livermore, Albert Maxfield, C. R. Hatton, Adolph Muesham, David McKelsey, David Hinds, M. E. Frederick E. Barnes, P. G. H. P., and the following representatives of sister grand jurisdictions: P. Fred Lenhart, of Alabama; D. M. Drury, of Arkan-Bas: W. N. Carmichael, of Maryland; George A. Drew, of North Carolina; W. H. Sutton, of Oregon; George W. Anderson, of Florida, and F. E. Davis, of South Dakota. High Priest Stewart welcomed the guests of the evening, and the Most Excellent Stivers delivered an unusually interesting address.

The degree of Mark Master Mason was conferred in full form in Orient's usual good style on three Most Excellent Comp. Stivers, on behalf of the chapter, presented to Excellent William C. Knapp a beautiful gold watch and chain as a testimonial from the chapter, and a basket of flowers for Mrs. Knapp from the committee and High Priest. The response of Companion Knapp was modest and becoming.

Most Excellent Companion Barnes presented, on behalf of the officers of Orient, to the Grand High Priest a beautiful and emblematic album, engrossed, and containing the portraits of the Grand Captain of the Host and the officers of Orient Chapter. Comp. Stivers, after getting over the surprise, responded feelingly, and thanked the officers for this appropriate and beautiful testimonial.

TRUE MASONRY.

The following letter is from W. Bro. Joseph Marson, a P. M. of Concord, to W. Bro. Dann, secre-

son, a P. M. of Concord, to W. Bro. Dann, secretary:

Brooklyn, N. Y., March 22, 1836.

Dear Brother Dann: Your very kind letter conveying the thanks of the lodge to me for my attention to Brother Barnatt during his last stekness, and also for the manner of conducting the funeral services, was duly received. I am much obliged to you and the members of Concord Lodge for the kindly expression of approval of the little services tendered to Brother Barnatt. Whatever I may have done was only done because I considered it my duty to do, and that without the hope of fee or reward. I should tender the same good offices to any brother, no matter who he was, if I was called upon to do so. Several times during Brother Barnatt's linears I experienced how deeply the man was wrapped up in our beloved order. When he had got to the stage of sickness that he did not clearly understand what was going on around him, and was unable to speak of things of which he desired, he would take my hand and give me the several Masonic grips whereby we know each other so well. I am sure our brother was pleased to see one of us around, and always pleased at the visits of the members of the lodge, and when we shall be called away and appear at the judgment seat we shall surely be kindly greeted by our Brother Barnatt. Again thanking you for your kindness, and trustfind some kind brother to show to me the attention I was pleased to pay to our dear brother James Barnatt, believe me, yours in love and fraternity.

Stuyvesant Lodge gave the second degree and also received the official visit of R. W. Joseph Middle Chamber work was delivered by Bro. Theodore J. Bayer in a very impressive manner. This lodge is making rapid strides in membership. Visitors are always welcome.

The Masonic Veterans of Brooklyn were invited to take part in conferring the third degree in Greenwood Lodge. R. W. John Visscher acted as S. D. and Dr. Burdlek gave the historical lecture. After lodge closed a collation was served, mixed with much pleasure and enloyment for the veterans. Dominic Twyng, Silas B. Dutcher, Claude Beatty, Theophilus Pratt, Andrew B. Martin and others were in the party.

The following is a copy verbatim et literatim et spellatum of a letter received some time ago: "Dear Sir,—Will you rite and tel me how mutch it costs to joine a free masons loge. Sumbody tolde me to rite to you and you wood tel me. I want to joine a good loge because I am told it will helpe me in my biziness. I am a bose carpenter." The letter is referred to Phantom Lodge No. 999, which, in its great hurry to increase its membership, may find time to initiate this desirable "bose carpenter."

Amenia Lodge No. 872, at Amenia, N. Y., conferred the second degree upon two candidates on Tuesday evening, the 24th inst. W. M. H. M. Caulkins presided, assisted by P. M. Fry, of the same lodge. The attendance was large. The Middle Chamber work was exemplified in a very superior manner by Brother Chapman, Senior Deacon of Webatuck Lodge, of Millerton, N. Y. Martinsburg, W. Va., was represented by the Rev. J. A. Marstello, of Equality Lodge, of third place. Two more applications were received, and still there's more to follow.

W. Va., was represented by the Rev. J. A. Marstello, of Equality Lodge, of that place. Two more applications were received, and still there's more to follow.

Wednesday evening, the 18th, was decidedly a red letter night in Montauk Lodge. The occasion was the official visit of the District Deputy of the Third District, R. W. Mascord. There was a large attendance of Masonic dignitaries, as well as representatives from most of the lodges in the district. A special feature of the evening was the reception of the Master and a large delegation from Altair Lodge, who had been especially invited. The decorations of the lodgeroom were superh, palms and flowering plants being in abundance. A fine banquet followed the exercises of the evening. The event was one long to be remembered by all who were present.

Veritas Lodge No. 724 had a gaia night Tuesday. The Master Mason's degree was conferred by W. Matthew Taylor. The Master was ably assisted by W. A. R. Ludwig, of Tecumseh, as Senior Deacon, and W. Thomas Githens, of Antiquity, who in a very able manner explained the working tools. The historical lecture by W. Rudolph Holde, the Assistant Grand Lecturer, was the feature of the evening. That brother surpassed all previous efforts, and gave the utmost pleasure and satisfaction to the large audience present by his scholarly treatment and finished style, and in consequence Masonry will take on new life in Veritas. Delegations were present from Hope, Ocean and Mariners' Lodge, with their Masters and several Past Masters. After the meeting closed refreshments were partaken of, congratulatory speeches made and a pleasant evening spent. This lodge has been compelled to renew its lease for another year in the Grand Opera House, there being no rooms vacant in the Masonic Hall for a suitable night. The lodge will not be content until it gets into the Temple. The occasion was primarily the third degree, and it was also said that P. G. M. James Ten Eyek would come forth from Albany to honor the lodge and the brethren turned out in Crescent Lodge gave a warm and cheerful impression to the visitor as he entered its portals last. Thursday evening. The first degree was on the trestle-board, but the main attraction was the official visit of R. W. George W. White, D. D., of the Sixth, who was introduced by R. W. James S. Manning, and most cordially greeted by the Master, W. Joel S. Mason. In reply, the Deputy thanked the Master for his kind words of welcome, spoke in feeling terms of the late Hon, Joel S. Mason, father of the Master, with whom he said he had spent many pleasant hours; spoke also of the good work being done by the present younger element in Masonry, and held up Crescent Lodge as an exemplar of healthy and careful progress. Among the many visitors with the D. D. were R. W. M. Dittenhoefer, Allison, William J. Duncan, Elwood, William McCabe, of Toronto; Valentine Schneider, Gardner, of Excelsior, Fromme and Halliday, of Hope; Johnson and Sheldon, of Continental, Henry J. Muller, of City: Hale, of Neptune; Gaige, of Adelphic; F. E. Davis, of Tecumseh, and Gibbs, Ferrier, Lackay and Dubois, of Crescent, W. M. noon was perhaps the finest gathering of Royal Arch Masons seen in a long time. The occasion Arch Mosons seen in a long time. The occasion was the official visit of M. E. George E. W. Stivers, Grand High Priest, accompanied by his entire staff. The High Priest, Robert Recker, dispensed with all work except the necessary routine business, in-Comp. Recker, in his address of welcome to the Grand High Priest, spoke as follows:

many years a large number of companions, par-ticularly professional men, were deprived of the experience of a lodge meeting in the afternoon, which is always largely attended and one of the most prosperous in the State, conceived the idea of organizing an afternoon chapter. Myself, with a THE GRAND MASTER IN TRUE CRAFTSMAN'S LODGE.

The presence of the Grand Master in any of our lodges naturally attracts a large attendance of the fraternity, who are anxious to see their chief and to listen to his words of wisdom and advice. It was therefore to be expected that a large audience would greet him upon his visit to True Craftsman's Lodge on Wednesday evening fast, although that visit was of an unofficial character. The occasion cases the presentation by him, on behalf of the membrande of the companies of the companie accompanied by Whan Lorange, care with topical songs, and imitations of Irving and others; Bros. O'Rellly, Mundwyler and Hinundreich played a trio serenade, by Tittel; Comp. Charles Richards sang "If I Was as Young as I Used To Be." Bro. William Logan sang several ballads, Mr. Carnoski, xylophone and drum solos; William Henning, cornet solo, "How Fair Thou Art"; Comp. H. W. Roe sang "The Lost Chord" and "I Fear No Foe."

There are few Masons in this State who have not seen the Masonic Home, but few are acquainted with the busy inside life of this institution. Within its walls about one hundred and fifty people are clothed and fed, and enjoy a home which thousands of people in this land of plenty would like to occupy—men who have filled every office in lodge, chapter and commandery, from the bighest to the lowest, and who in their younger days were prosperous business men; men and women who are devout Christians. Under the able management of Brother and Mrs. Anthony, everything is done with clockwork order. At 6-30 in the morning every one leaves his or her bed, and at 7 breakfast is ready. After breakfast the ladles repair to the bedrooms and the beds are made and rooms put in order. At 9 the children are placed in charge of their teacher, there to remain until 12. At 12 dinner is served, and subject at 6 Mr. and Mrs. Anthony are present at each meal. Any instention on the part of the inmates receives prompt attention. In the afternoon the ladles spend their time in sewing, and it can be said with truth that they repair in their service more than the expense of their keeping. Very few of the men are inclined to do any work, their alments and inclinations being stronger than the ladles. Brother Davis, of Manhattan Lodge, is the hardest worker in the building, and night and day is spent by him in caring for fee sick. Brother Pierce, of Watertown, and Peter Cumnings, of Park Lodge, are ushers, and when it is remembered that as many as 6:0 or 5:00 a day visit the building, our readers can see that it is no casy task. The United States and Mason is flags are placed in front of the building every day. Kellgloos training is not forgotten. Prayer meetings are held every Welnesday evening, and one of the clergynen from this city holds religious services every Sunday afternoon, and service of sons is held every Sunday evening. Por amusement and pastime the inmates have their cardrooms, smoking and reading rooms and a library with a large number of books, and every one seems happy and contented.

IN NEW-JERSEY.

The ninety-second regular rendezvous of New-Jersey Sovereign Consistory, S. P. R. S., A. A. S. R., N. M. J., Valley of Jersey City, was held Tues-day evening, March 24. The announcement that a class of eighteen would receive the consistorial de-gree and the XXth, Master Ad Vitam, in full ceremonial form, crowded the preceptory with Sublime Princes from New-Jersey and neighboring jurisdic-tions. It is significant that notwithstanding the large infusion of new blood into Jersey City Scottish Rite hodies of late years, none of the older members, those who were active in the Rite years ago, appear

Rnown that R. W. Jalines B. Grace work sistorical lecture. All these attractions gave Independent Lodge the "right of Ine." W. John G. Foisom presided in the first part, W. Frank I. Hamilton, of Po'ar Star, in the second section and R. W. Gillie finished with a lecture which was a surportise and delight to all present. M. W. James Ten Eyck was received by the Past Master, and made an eloquent and dignified address, thanking the brethren for the reception and giving them good and wholesome advice from the point of one who has received the highest honors in the craft of the Empire State. Of Independent's Past Masters there were present W.'s Parker, Hanna, Russell, Bogart, Macready and Lindemeyer, and of visitors, R. W. E. M. L. Ehlers, R. W. William J. Duncan and many others. A fine banquet rounded out this very pleasant gathering.

The "smoker" heid at the Craftsman's Club last Saturday again showed the great popularity which this Masonic club has gained among the brethren. Everybody Masonic was there and everybody enteriain the members, of which the following are the names of but a few: Dan Quinn, conite congs. Colonel Fred Wilson, singer and humories, Mr. Xanten, tenor solo; H. W. Elder, humorist; James Heary, barytone solo; H. Dahason, barytone solo; J. Birch, humorist; W. Tanten, tenor solo; H. W. Elder, humorist; James Heary, barytone solo; H. Welder, humorist; James Heary, barytone solo; H. Scholer, and many others. The house was crowded. Among others were James S. Manning, J. Slewart, William H. Miller, Jr., George Arnold, Fred Brown, I. A. Asher, Dr. Stah, S. F. Affleck, P. Joseph, R. Kanter, G. Benta, J. Hall, J. Pope, P. Ferrier, G. E. W. Stivers, J. H. Russell, B. The handsome concert hall of Madison Square Garden was profusely decorated with palms and flowers last Tuesday night, when Scotta Lodge held its annual reception and entertainment in this charming hall; but all the flowers, decorations and electric lights were dim and dull when compared to the beautiful lassies of Scotia, and the brethren were all smiles and gladness when, looking around, they saw the many happy faces who came to enjoy a pleasant evening with this good and sociable lodge

REPUBLIC LODGE.

The veterans (whom some of the brethren vul-garly dub back numbers) of Republic Lodge had things their own way at the communication of March 21, for it was Past Masters' night, and W. Bro. Gustave Hennig had arranged the work of the evening in such manner that the lodge con-gratulated him heartily upon the successful completion of his efforts to maintain the prestige of "Old Republic."

After the routine business of the lodge had been disposed of the W. M. invited R. W. Bro. John L. Reid to the East, who conferred the first section of the degree of Master Mason, assisted by W. Bro. Andrew Patterson as Senior Warden and W. Bro. Andrew Patterson as Senior Warden and W. Bro. William Suizer as Junior Warden.

In the second section the Grand Secretary, R. W. Bro. E. M. L. Ehiers, assumed the East; R. W. Bro. Robert T. Hoy occupied the West, and W. Bros. Maxifield, McGrath and Bro. Hafely assisted in the floor work. The historical lecture was delivered by R. W. Bro. Ehiers, whose explanation of the symbols and legends of the third degree was received with well-merited applause by all the brethren present. Among the prominent visitors were R. W. Bro. Elwood, Visscher, Peterkin, Affleck and Duncan.

York Commandery, No. 55, gave the Order of the Red Cross and Order of the Temple. There were several candidates for the honor. A very pleasing incident occurred during this conclave of York Commandery, News was officially received that the esteemed Past Commander, Em. Sir William J. McDonald, had been elected an honorary member of Clinton Commandery, No. 14, of Brooklyn, and also of Malta Commandery, No. 21, stationed at Binghamton. The Recorder was directed to acknowledge the compliment paid to York and to its honored P. C. Sir William has achieved much distinction in all branches of Masonry, notably in the Capitular Rite, having served two years as Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of New-York.

Apollo Commandery No. 14, of Troy N. Y., at its regular conclave, held Friday evening, received the official visit of Em. Sir Erasus C. Delayan, of Binghamton. There was presented on this night a handsome set of resolutions from the Grand Commandery to Apolio in recognition and in appreciation of the fine appearance the Drill Corps made at the last triennial conclave in Boston. The presentation for the Grand Commandery was made by Em. Sir William J. McDonald, of York No. 55. Eir Jesse B. Anthony was presented with a certificate of honorary membership in Utlea Commandery No. 3, of Utlea. This was handsomely done by Sir William J. MacElroy, the commander of No. 3. The Grand Recorder, John Shaffer, on behalf of Apollo, presented a duplicate certificate to Sir Knight George Nicholson, of Brooklyn. All of this drew many eminent Sir Knights from the surrounding towns and from this city to Apollo. It was an excellently arranged affair, which wound up with a fine banquet at which over three hundred Sir Knights participated. Em. Sir Knight Arthur McArthur, James S. Maning, Armitage and many others were in the party.
